The home of James Blaney, at East Bernstadt, was struck by lightning and burned with its contents.

Private Russell H. Elliott, who enlisted at Somerset, was killed in the assault on Pekin. His nearest relative is John W. Taylor, of Mintonville.

Kelly Hoone, George Thriller, Charley Thomas and Robert H. Morrow are filling an engagement with the Nat. Reles company. Some of them expect to remain with it throughout the season.—Somerset Paragon.

Near Flat Rock, Pulaski county, Mrs. Serapha Sellers was decaying from her home, waylaid, beaten with a club and shot and killed with a revolver by Mrs. Nancy Hanley and her daughter, Thelma King. Mrs. Hanley's husband had been in the habit of sending his young son with messages to meet him clandestinely, and in this manner the woman was decaying to her death by the women. No arrests.

Four youngsters from Milledgeville, fired with more patriotism than prudence, recently started to foot it to Ft. Thomas to join the army, thence to China. Reaching Burgin they attempted to board a train going North, but were "pulled" by an officer and threatened with a pounce on the rock pile. They escaped, returned to their homes whither but not the least dampened in zeal for their country's good.—Dr. Alcorn in Danville Advocate.

POLITICAL.

Louisiana went dry Saturday by a majority of 61.

A 10-year-old Alabama Negro girl gave birth to quadruplets, all girls.

The Remington got the award at Paris over all the other typewriters.

Chicago will dedicate a coliseum this week 300x180 feet, capable of seating 10,000 people.

W. R. Ramsey, of London, is one of the several candidates for the republican nomination for circuit judge in the 27th district.

At Cincinnati, Harry Webster shot himself Sunday with suicidal intent in the presence of his sweetheart. His condition is critical.

James J. Corbett and Kid McCoy will meet in a 25-round bout at Madison Square Garden Thursday night for a purse close to $10,000.

In order to refresh the old soldiers on their march in Chicago this week 50,000 sandwiches will be distributed at the various rendezvous along the route.

Cincinnati wasn't satisfied with the population the U. S. census gave her, so had a count made of her own, which only shows 5,328 over the official figures.

At Dallas, Texas, Sunday, one man was shot and fatally wounded, two persons were stabbed, a school-keeper committed suicide and a contractor died of sunstroke.

The republicans of the 10th district in convention at Irvine nominated "Parsen" N. T. Hopkins for Congress. Judge Beckner's friends withdrew his name when they saw defeat was certain.

The roads of this district are fixing up for another contest, knowing that that is the only shadow of a show they have of getting into office. At the Richmond convention Grant Lilly offered a resolution inviting the voters of Jackson county to vote with the Eighth district this fall, which was adopted amid loud shouts of approval.

Pekin has not been occupied, the allies refraining from aggressive action pending instructions from their governments. The report of the capture of the Chinese Emperor is said to be erroneous. It is believed that the Empress Dowager will not be pursued. There is danger of a famine in Tien Tsin. The report that Russia, Germany and Japan had declared war on China, is not true.

The Negro Peck, whose attempt to oust a small white girl, started the riot at Akron, O., in which several persons were killed or fatally injured, was taken back to the scene of his crime and recently tried and sentenced to the penitentiary for life. He was immediately taken thither and was to the walls within three days after his dastardly attempt. It will be remembered that the mob burned the courthouse after finding the prisoner had been spirited away.

MATRIMONIAL.

H. C. Snodgrass, of Brodhead, and Miss Nannie McFarlane, of Lily, were married last week.

Robert Haywood, a bachelor of 78, was married at Jonesville, Ark., to Mrs. Julia Robinson, 67.

J. W. Cromer and Miss Valerica Hutman, popular young people of Rockcastle, were married last week.

Miss Bettie Paxton, who saw the knot tied, tells us that Dr. James W. Huffman, son of Mrs. Joe P. Huffman, of Lexington, was married Saturday morning to Miss Nannie Collins. Dr. Huffman had decided to go to Chelsea, Indian Territory, to locate, and had fixed Saturday to go by himself, but he prevailed on his sweetheart to go with him just in time to be married before they started, and that accounts for its consummation on an odd day of the week. Dr. Huffman is making a success of his profession and we are glad to know he has married a most worthy young lady.

CHURCH.—That the Cooper & Co. have well earned their deserved success is attested by what the press and the critics have to say of their show, which will exhibit here Monday, Sept. 3. The advanced press notices have words of praise for them, their performance is presented in as new and attractive form as modern thought and invention will permit. They have a multitude of masterly innovations never before presented, which are thoroughly in accordance with the spirit of the times. The advent of Cooper & Co. shows has in a great measure uplified the amusement business and it can be truthfully said that they are modern showmen with modern ideas.

IT SAVED HIS BABY.

"My baby was terribly sick with the diarrhoea, we were unable to cure him with the doctor's assistance, and as a last resort we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. J. H. Dank, of Williams, Ore. "I am happy to say it gave immediate relief and a complete cure." For sale by Craig & Hocker.

LANCASTER.

Gen. D. B. Collier has received his appointment as pension agent for Kentucky and will enter on the duties of the office on Sept. 1.

I am thankful to Mrs. T. S. Misses Sallie and Mattie Elkin, Messrs. J. W. Poor and J. A. Duty for fruit and vegetables from their abundant crops.

Tell Ceph Campbell, editor of that excellent Somerset Journal, that Capt. White, Bob Hughes and I put the flowers on James Dillon's grave as requested.

Miss Mary Thompson's entertainment at her palatial home in honor of Misses Guiley and Yantis was an enjoyable event and a large crowd was in attendance.

Since the work of the mob at Akron, O., the republicans had better hold up on Southern mobs, as that gathering committed more depredations than any one in the South.

The Tate's Creek Association will meet with Fregdon church in this county on Tuesday, 28th, that day being the 100th anniversary of the dedication of that church.

The State campaign committee has made a good selection in appointing J. E. Robinson chairman of the Garrard county campaign committee, which will be organized today, Monday, together with a democratic club, and an address will be delivered by Hon. G. G. Gilbert, who will sound the key note in this section in his usually able and fearless manner.

Our city will do its part in the approaching campaign. Hons. R. H. Tomlinson, J. Mort Rothwell and Letcher Daxley have been assigned by Gov. McCreary, chairman of the State campaign committee, to speak the first two named at Mt. Vernon and the latter at Somerset. Tell the boys to give them a good hearing and democratic principles will be set forth in the proper manner.

Mrs. Humphrey Martin, aged 50 years, died at her home in Madison county last Friday of paralysis. The remains were buried in Lancaster cemetery on Saturday. Her husband and four children survive her, to whom the entire community extends sincere condolence.

In the circuit court, Judge Sauley gave peremptory instructions for the defendant in the case of Henry Hughes' administrator against the L. & N. for $50,000 damages after plaintiff had introduced testimony. The following were sent to the penitentiary for one year: Frank Garnett, colored, for house-breaking; Alfred Preston, for same charge; and Walter Simpson, colored, charged with grand larceny. After disposing of some civil business of minor importance, court adjourned on Saturday until Tuesday morning.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Elder Burdett has closed a meeting at Freedom, Casey county, which resulted in 43 additions.

Rev. W. R. Lloyd's meeting at Athens, Fayette county, resulted in 28 additions to the church.

The Courier Journal says that Elder Tice Spear, who is 89, has been engaged in the ministry 83 years, which would make him only six when he began. He is a member of the Christian church. He says he never has received more than $250 for all his services.

Reports at the Carlisle meeting show that the Christian church in Kentucky raised $6,241.80 for State work and church building the past year. Through the work of the State evangelists and lecturing amount above, a grand total of $20,000 was raised. Fifty thousand dollars was raised by Kentucky churches for home and foreign missions.

John Alexander Dowle's exclusion from the United States under the immigration laws on the claim that he was once convicted of a crime in a foreign country, New South Wales, is being sought by Joel W. Stevens, a Chicago attorney, and others who were formerly identified with the Zion movement. He is now in England and his prospects for returning to this country are slim.

McKITTICK.—Friends of the estimable lady will grieve to learn of the death of Mrs. Wallace W. McKittick, at Clark's Hill, Ind., August 23d, from the effects of a surgical operation. The News contains a touching obituary of her with the following sketch of her life: Martha Elise McKittick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Marcum, was born in Pulaski county, Ky., May 12, 1870. In 1883 her parents moved to Lincoln county, that State. Here Mattie grew to womanhood and on Nov. 27, 1894, was married to Wallace W. McKittick. They resided there until February of this year, when they moved to this vicinity. She was a little past 30 years of age. The remains were interred in the Union cemetery. Father and mother, loving brothers and sisters, the devoted husband whose life was wrapped in hers, kind friends and neighbors, who watched with bated breath at the bedside of Mattie McKittick, alternating between hope and fear, as they saw her bright, young life slowly ebbing away, now fully realize that all is over and that in the midst of life, we are in death. In the presence of the family and friends her soul passed silently and swiftly across the dark river to the beautiful shore on the other side. There Mattie waits to welcome her loved ones home.

A MORT OF TERROR. "Aunt Emily was for the widow of the brave General Sherman of Michigan, Me., when the doctor said she could not live till morning." writes Mrs. S. H. Kincaid, who attended her last days. "All thought she must die from pneumonia, but the fastest for Dr. King's New Life Pills. It had more than once saved her life, and had cured her of consumption. After three small doses she slept easily all night, and her further recovery was complete. This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all Throat, Chest and Lung diseases. Only 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at Tenny's drugstore."

The wife of a wealthy Indiana farmer committed suicide because her husband had made preparations to sell their farm.

Mr. Bryan is letting no grass grow under his feet. He made 11 speeches last week, besides several car platform talks.

The case of Barber Weaver, charged with perjury, was continued at Georgetown until Sept. 3, owing to the absence of witnesses for the defense.

Judge Boreing, Senator Parker, Judge Eversole and James Sparks were given a frost at the "grand rally" at McWhorter Saturday. Less than 50 people rallied.

Bob Fitzsimmons knocked out Saller Tom Sharkey in New York in the 23rd round. The Australian's superior hitting ability and ring generalship made victory comparatively easy.

A terrific storm swept along the beach at Nome on Aug. 7, destroying a large number of barges and launches. Nearly 40 bodies have since been washed ashore at Nome and other places in the vicinity.

Judge Cantrill overruled the motion for a new trial in the Powers case and gave the attorneys for the defense until Sept. 3 to file a bill of exceptions. He ordered Powers' removal to the Louisville jail for safe keeping, saying that he feared the prisoner might escape if left in the Georgetown jail.

Senator John Barrett has issued a call for a republican joint caucus to be held tonight to discuss the policy to be pursued by republican members during the session of the Legislature. The call invites browns and others opposed to the present election law to take part. The anti-Groebel men it is understood, however, will hold separate caucuses.

The will of the late C. F. Huntington was filed for probate in New York. The Southern Pacific railroad stock is bequeathed to Mrs. Huntington and Archer M. Huntington. The larger portion of the estate is left in trust for the benefit of the various heirs. Trustees Hatzfeldt is left $1,000,000 in trust, the principal to go to her issue at her death.

Of the presidents, Adams, federalist, Polk, Buchanan and Cleveland; democrats: Taylor, whig; Lincoln, Hayes, Garfield and Harrison, republican, did not, when elected, receive a majority of the popular vote. The highest percentage of popular vote received by any president was 55.97 for Jackson, democrat, in 1828, and the lowest 39.91 for Lincoln, republican, in 1860. Hayes and Harrison with the exception of John Quincy Adams, who was chosen by the House of Representatives, were the only presidents ever elected who did not have a majority over their principal competitor, and Tilden and Cleveland the only defeated candidates who had a majority over the president-elect.

Had he lived, Gov. Goebel told the editor of the Owensboro Messenger he would have changed the election law so as to insure both leading parties equal representation in every polling place and provide for representation of both leading parties on the county and State canvassing boards. Under the law that preceded the Goebel law this was not guaranteed and frequently not possible. Mr. Goebel also wanted the party emblems on the ballots removed. He desired to provide for this in the original bill, but deferred to the very foolish, we think—objections of some of his friends. This will also probably be proposed when the amendments are offered. When the law has been thus amended, says the Messenger, it will stand as one of the best and fairest in operation in the whole country, as indeed it is now, notwithstanding the abuse and misrepresentation it has suffered.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL
STANFORD, KY., - AUG. 28, 1900
W. F. WALTON.
DEMOCRATIC TICKET.
For President,
WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN,
Of Nebraska.
For Vice-President,
ADLAI E. STEVENSON,
Of Illinois.
For Governor,
J. C. W. BECKHAM,
Of Nelson.
For Congress,
GEORGE G. GILBERT,
Of Shelby.

THE call of Gov. Beckham for an extra session of the Legislature has elicited both from newspapers and individual citizens many suggestions and much advice relative to the modification and amendment of the election law. Having never believed that the law is inflexible, having always known that it is a better and a fairer law than the election laws of the republican States of Ohio and Pennsylvania, enacted and maintained by republican legislators and enforced by republican officials; having been satisfied that the true and cry raised against it by a large majority of the black and Brown republicans was insincere and hypocritical; having known for many years that in political matters it is impossible to offend the moral sense of the republican party, because it has in these respects, no moral sense to offend; having known for many years that this party has no patriotism except as the supply of that sentiment is bought and paid for; that it is out for the stuff regardless of written constitutions, statutes, usages and precedents; that it beats its policies to suit its principles and violates its principles to suit its policies; that it had its origin in sectional hate and envy, and organized its original strength only to accomplish its purpose to rob and steal from the Southern people; that its cry of reform is a mockery, its pretense of honesty a government, a shame, its professed opposition to trusts a fraud, its claim of interest in the people a lie, having been so thoroughly convinced through all these years that these things are true, the INTERIOR JOURNAL has never taken any stock in the sincerity of the republicans and their allies in the condemnation of the Goebel election law upon the grounds urged by them.

To be plain, the INTERIOR JOURNAL favors a few amendments of the law so as to make it as a partisan as possible. To be plain again it takes the decided position that the Goebel law is a better, fairer, a less reprehensible law than that which was enacted by the Legislature of Kentucky to put into effect the provisions of the new constitution, which received the sanction at the time of both democrats and republicans and of John Young Brown, the then governor. We are not on the war path, nor to invite or challenge any discussion of the relative merits of these two enactments, but hold ourselves ready to prove to the satisfaction of any reasonable and candid man that the Goebel law is an improvement on the law which John Young Brown approved when governor, and that for every defect in the Goebel law there is either a corresponding or a greater defect in the law which it supplanted. And yet the Goebel law is not perfect, for that matter no law is. It can be improved by amendment or by modification, or by addition, or in all three ways.

The original vices of our election system is found in the new constitution, supported by democrats and republicans alike, which forced the secret ballot, and the supplemental vice is found in the Australian system of voting, supported by democrats and republicans alike, which followed the constitution. The people throughout the State are and have been dissatisfied with the Australian law. With us it has been experimental. We found it to be cumbersome, complicated, difficult of comprehension, easy of evasion, quite susceptible of successful violation and a never accomplished rascality. In the frame of mind the people were in with regard to this law and with a consequent understanding of the difference between it and the Goebel law, they have not disposed to ascribe all the defects to the Australian system to the Goebel law, simply because they have been misled forward in that law. The chief defect in the Goebel law is that it does not strike down enough the evils which have always existed in the foundation of our State government in the election laws. It is well remembered that the knaves of the republicans made the fouls of all parties believe that the law under which Goebel and Beckham carried on their elections, had no existence prior to the law which the Goebel law replaced that contest possible. And this is a fair sample of the objections that a better-than-thou politician would urge against the Goebel law. This law ought to be amended and for this reason any discussion of its merits or demerits may be academic; but we repeat our proposition, offering to make it good, if any Brown or black republican assails it, that for every defect in the Goebel law, a corresponding or greater defect can be pointed out in the older law.

So, therefore, not at the demand of republicans or any ally of the republicans, because they would be willing to wreck the State for a party advantage, but in the interest of all the people let the law be made as simple, as easily understood, as free from complexity as possible. The more valves, tubes, cocks and stopcocks there are to any machinery, the more difficult it is of understanding, the easier out of fix and the harder to mend. The simpler a law is the better is the understanding of it; the better the understanding of it the harder it is to successfully evade it, evade it or violate it, and if evaded or violated the easier and more certain the punishment. If possible, all election laws should be as simple as a call of the axes and uses or holding up of the right hand. Voting should be in the open, but no one near the voter but the officers of the election. Poll books should be preserved and the evidence of how each one voted, if a contest be made, should be accessible.

We may never—an unhappy thought it is—get back to the old, honest, manly viva voce system, the system which corresponds so well with the character and history of Kentucky people and the free born race of Virginians from whom they sprang, but we may hope we may get tolerably close to it in the simplicity of its methods and its ease of comprehension. If so, we have retrieved a part of the lost ground.

JOHN D. WHITE, as the prohibition candidate for governor, went out much figure when the votes are counted, but he will make things interesting during the canvass, if given any sort of a chance. The created jayhawker is never so happy as when raising a row and wading in gore. Mr. White has always been a prohibition advocate, but he has heretofore affiliated with the republican party, to which he was a thorn in the flesh. He couldn't stand Yerkes on a platform of assassination and McKinley committed to the cantankerous in the army, both of which he declares are worse than any election law could be.

In the last issue of his Rough Rider, from his safe retreat at Peasville, Ind., Charles Finley scathes the verdict rendered in the Caleb Powers case. He says it is the most wretched mockery of justice that has ever disgraced Kentucky, and nothing like it has happened since the Dreyfus case dishonored France. It is natural that Charles should take this view of the case. He has got to pass through the same mill himself, as sure as he lives, and if he is not ground exceedingly fine, it won't be for a lack of corroborating evidence that he was in the conspiracy.

JAILER PFLANZ, of Louisville, is allowing too much sobriety over Convict Powers. He might emulate the example of Sheriff Robison, of Union county, O., who sends back to the foolish women the flowers they send to a suspected murderer. There is just a little too much of the hero man's flouting business in the Powers case and the people, who know by the proof how guilty he is of complicity in the assassination, are getting sick of it.

JOHN D. WHITE'S candidacy for governor on the prohibition ticket has produced the biggest crop of paragraphs that we have had on one subject since Abdu Ely Ghooly Kahn, the late Turkish minister to this country, bradled up his wives, pipe and bath tub and departed in disgust, because the president refused to heed the pestiferous paragraphs for making such free and contemptuous use of his name.

THE Hon. Bill Beckner, of Clark, who has been on the down grade for years, tried to break into the republican party and secure the nomination for Congress in the 10th district, but he got the icy stars and the cold shake. The Hon. Bill has had no standing in the democratic party for years, nor much standing anywhere since Gov. Bradley carried him down so severely a few years ago.

If the managers of Mr. Yerkes are still pining for a bout in the political prize ring, they should apply to John D. White, a respectable middleweight, who has never declined a proposition of that kind. If Mr. Yerkes should make a reputation by knocking him out with kid gloves, which is not at all likely, Beckner's managers may then give a favorable consideration to his challenge.

COMPLAINING of his handcuffs, Convict Powers says, "I am not the man to run and never will." Perhaps. But he can not say he never did. Had he been asked when caught at Lexington, disguised with an escort of soldiers, what made him run, he would have had to reply like the Johnnie Reb told Gen. Gordon, when similarly questioned, "Jes' because I can't fly."

CHARLES N. PURVIS, of Williamsport, Pa., has made himself a pauper by paying the debt of his father and grandfather, who broke in 1898. It is very common for children to look after the credit side of their parents' affairs, but this is the only case on record where they have paid any attention to the debit side.

THE gray gelding told Convict Powers that he was a martyr. The convict's opinion of the g. g. is not given, but he doubtless winked the other eye over his case to apparently fooling those who would not believe Powers had Goebel killed, if they had seen him do it. There are none so blind as those who will not see.

JUDGE CANTILL overruled the motion of Powers' attorneys for a new trial and at the same time should have sent the last son-of-a-run of them to jail for contempt. A life term in jail, however, would not purge John Young Brown of the contempt law, which all honest people hold him.

CALEB POWERS is again indignant because he was handcuffed when taken from Georgetown to the Louisville jail. If he considers himself better than other felons, the sheriff should humor this whim when he takes him to the penitentiary by using manacles of "caste" iron.

YERKES will open his campaign at Bowling Green, Sept. 3, and will speak daily to the 15th. Most of his speech will doubtless be devoted to answering the 20-odd questions we put to him months ago and which he has studiously refrained so far from answering.

"POWERS was taken from Georgetown to the Louisville jail manacled like a beast," shriek the assassination organs. Well what of it? That is the way convicts are treated and this one has been shown to be not only a beast but a brute of the most cowardly type.

THOMAS BRACKETT REED's letter in which he agreed to make speeches for the republican ticket, has never reached the committee. McKinley should discharge his postmaster general on account of the loss of so valuable a document in his department.

CHARLES DENNY, who was appointed by McKinley as a democrat on the Philippine commission, has written a letter urging the re-election of the man who honored him. Gratitude is a noble virtue, but such a sell out is ignominious.

MR. M. F. HETHERINGTON, one of the best writers in the State, has said the Lebanon Falcon to Mr. Charles L. Hunter and will go South to live, the more the pity for Kentucky democracy and journalism.

MR. ENLOE was beaten for the nomination for Congress in the 8th Tennessee district. The democrats evidently wanted to rebuke him for starting a paper that has turned so dirty and disreputable as the Louisville Dispatch.

It is inconceivable why Mr. Yerkes, a good Presbyterian brought up on the Shorter Catechism, should be soaverse to answering a few questions propounded with the view of teaching sound doctrine to the voters of the State.

POWERS says that if he were turned loose to the streets of Louisville, he wouldn't try to escape. If this be true, his conduct in Louisville would be very different from what it was in Lexington.

BULLY for the prohibitionists! They expelled two of the delegates to their convention at Louisville for advocating an endorsement of Yerkes and the making of a nomination for governor.

Russia has contracted with a Chicago firm for 6,000,000 pounds of beef to feed its army in China.

The Spanish government has decreed that beginning Jan. 1, 1901, the hours shall be counted from 1 to 24.

A large number of the G. A. R. men are attending the encampment at Chicago and the city is crowded with visitors.

Hon. John S. Rhea was renominated for Congress by acclamation by the democrats of the Third district at Bowling yesterday afternoon.

Over 600 delegates are expected to attend the annual convention of the Kentucky Sunday School Association, which begins at Bowling Green today.

Staid old Philadelphia gained 23.57 per cent. in population during the decade. The new census gives it 1,203,007.

On an excursion train which ran from Middleboro to Stonega, Va., Boone McLeary shot and fatally injured Kirk Hodges.

Two persons were killed and four wounded, three perhaps fatally, and a house burned, as the result of an all-night battle between a mob and Mrs. Dr. C. W. Wright at Gilman, Ill., charged with killing a girl.

Mark Hanna is scolded up. In his campaign opening speech at Asbury Park, N. J., he warned his hearers that they had the light of their lives before them and that they must not take anything for granted.

If you have a baby in the house you wish to know the best way to check any unusual looseness of the bowels, or diarrhoea so common to small children. O. P. M. Holliday, of Deuing, Ind., who has an eleven months' old child, says: Through the months of June and July our baby was teething and took a running off of the bowels and sickness of the stomach. His bowels would move from five to eight times a day. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house and gave him four drops in a teaspoonful of water and he got better at once." For sale by Craig & Hoeker, Druggists.

ANCE BORING will run a restaurant and ice cream parlor during the fair at the Albright stand, Watson's Drug Store, Broadhead.
THE Hon. G. G. Gilbert will speak at the Broadhead fair Thursday and Dr. J. M. Williams is expected to speak Friday. What's the matter with a joint debate?
SEPTEMBER 22 is the last day for filing claims, road, pike or other kinds, against the county. No claims will be filed after that date. G. B. Cooper, clerk.
BASE HALL - Lancaster's second team went to Hustonville Saturday afternoon and got beat 10 to 4. Our second team will play Lancaster there this afternoon.
THIS has been the hottest spell since the signal service was established 25 years ago. At Louisville the mercury went from 97 to 100 for 21 consecutive days and only failed to do so one or two days since.
LIGHTNING struck a chimney of J. W. Baughman's residence during the storm the other night and running down it into the bath room damaged the tub considerably. Mrs. Baughman was in the room but was much more frightened than shocked.
CRAWFORD - Mrs. James M. Crawford, one of the best women in Rockcastle, died at her home near Broadhead Saturday, after a long illness of dropsy. Besides her husband a number of grown children survive. She was a half sister to Mr. Ross Hlatt, of this county.
LANCASTER COURT - A fairly good crowd attended Lancaster court yesterday and the few common cattle there were not much in demand. A lot of helters brought $1 to 4c and several butcher cattle at $1 to 3c were about all that changed hands. Mules were in demand at $80 to $120. A number of sheep sold at $3.25 to $4. Horses were dull.
THE C. & O. is noted for the regularity of its trains, but it seems to reserve its worst for us or we are a Jonah. Two years ago we were detained hours by a washout, and Friday a tunnel, that had stood the wear and jars of 30 years, caved in and 10 coaches of people, with the express, mail and baggage cars, had to be transferred across the mountain, a distance of over two miles, necessitating a delay of seven hours, our train reaching Lexington at midnight when it should have gotten there at 5 o'clock.
DR. WILLIAMS - The Louisville Times tells some tales out of school of Dr. John Mason Williams, the recently discovered statesman by the republicans. It says that when he lived in that city he was considered a democrat, a base ball "rooter" and a dead game sport and that he tried to open a saloon adjoining Macanley's theatre. He applied for the license under the name of "J. Williams." The license was granted, but subsequently a big howl went up from church people and the license was revoked on the ground that Williams was not a housekeeper. He facilitated action by withdrawing his application. Subsequently Dr. Williams went to war as a contract army surgeon and we suppose he will make a rough rider race for Congress, a la Roosevelt.

SPEAKERS have been assigned by the Campaign Committee to 66 of the 119 counties of the State to open up next Monday. Judge R. J. Breckinridge will speak at Lawrenceburg; N. B. Hays at Pineville; R. C. Warren at Danville; Virgil Smith at Liberty; W. B. Hansford at Manchester; W. B. Smith at Lancaster; C. C. Williams at McKee; C. W. Metcalf at Harboursville; Henry Hazelwood at London; J. C. Beckham and W. J. Price at Stanford; James D. Black at Richmond; John S. Rhea at Lebanon; G. G. Gilbert and Lew Wallace at Harrodsburg; Ben V. Smith and Letcher Owsley at Somerset; J. Mort Rothwell and R. H. Tomlinson at Mt. Vernon; J. Boyle Stone at Jamestown; George E. Stone at Columbia; John Bertram and W. R. Cress at Mountello.
GARRARD DEMOCRATS - Before Hon. G. G. Gilbert's splendid speech at Lancaster yesterday afternoon a large number of democrats gathered at the courthouse and took steps toward organizing a democratic club, which they named in honor of Mr. Gilbert. Joe E. Robinson stated the object of the meeting and W. I. Williams nominated A. R. Denay for chairman and J. E. Robinson, G. B. Swinebroad for secretary, both of whom were elected by acclamation. After ringing resolutions were adopted the chair appointed the following gentlemen to secure members to the club: R. L. Davidson, Frank Pierce, Robert Arnold, G. B. Swinebroad and M. F. Rott. A motion to adjourn until next Monday afternoon to elect officers carried and the temporary organization will remain in effect until then. The democrats then listened to Mr. Gilbert's splendid effort of 14 hours and felt much the better for having done so.

THE reunion near Kingsville was well attended each day and proved a source of great pleasure to the many old soldiers who were there in large numbers. As promised, oratory was a big feature and while all speeches were good, that of Hon. R. C. Warren was especially so. Good order was preserved throughout and the old soldiers are under obligations to Mr. W. L. McCarty, who personally superintended the affair. The music by the Stanford band was greatly complimented. The fireworks at night were greatly enjoyed.
"Do you send any papers out of the State of Kentucky?" one of our subscribers asked us the other day, and of course we told him that we do. The question caused us to look over our mail list and we find that the INTERIOR JOURNAL goes to every State in the union except Connecticut, Vermont and Rhode Island. It also goes to several subscribers in the Philippine Islands, Cuba, Porto Rico, Paris, France and other foreign countries. We send 52 papers to the State of Missouri, 37 to Texas, 33 to Illinois, 12 to Wyoming, while in Kansas, Indiana and Tennessee its circulation is something like as good as it is in Lincoln county.

Several hundred ewes sold at $1 to $4.25 and quite a number of next year's lambs were engaged at 5 to 6c. There was some demand for mule colts and one extra mare mule sold for $72.50.

BURNED - Mrs. E. S. Arnold was badly burned about the face and neck while canning tomatoes. A can burst and its hot contents did the work.
SHIRT waists for men are in such demand that our merchants have been unable to get any so far, although a number of the more dressy youths have had in their orders for months. Geo. Ellis, with H. J. McRoberts, says he has done his best to get in a lot and thinks he will succeed in a few weeks.

IT is almost like stepping from the Sahara desert to the Garden of Eden, coming from drought ridden, parched up Virginia to the green fields and spreading shades of Kentucky. There never was a more reasonable spell in the State than this summer and such a corn and tobacco crop was never seen in these diggings.
"I FIND most of the democrats, unless they be broken down politicians or railroad attorneys, whose jobs depend on it, are coming back to the party," said clever Lew Holmes, the commercial evangelist, to us Saturday.
"Down in Greensburg, I asked the county clerk, 'How many democrats in Green county went off last year?' He replied 60. 'How many of them are back,' I inquired. 'Sixty,' was his answer, and he said he had talked with them all and knew whereof he asserted.
